Serving the Spiritual Needs of Grieving Parents Whose Children of Any Age, Have Died by Any Cause, No Matter How Long Ago

> Spring, 2020 Emmaus Ministry Wednesday Virtual Gatherings

Every Wednesday evening from April 8 to May 6, 2020 Emmaus Ministry parents--and anyone else who cared to join us--gathered for an hour from 8pm-9pm to reflect on where is God in the pain and suffering of a grieving parent.

The Reflections were comforting and inspiring. It was great to see each other in a Zoom setting. The second half of the sessions included vibrant discussions among parents and the presenters.

Please join us vicariously by watching and listening to the Reflections using the links below. [Note: Because of confidentiality reasons, the discussions are not included in the recordings below.]

"On Easter Sunday this week, together, we will celebrate not only the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, but also the resurrection of your child. All of your children are alive and well--and prospering."

April 8, 2020 at 8pm Brother David Schlatter, OFM Brother David Schlatter, OFM has served as a Catholic Chaplain at Walter Reed National Military Medical Center for many years, and resides in Silver Spring MD. He was our spiritual leader for our most recent retreat in Washington DC and gave a particularly poignant and moving reflection. SEE BRO. DAVID'S REFLECTION HERE.

"God comes to us through the wounds, not in spite of them... Like Lazarus, we need to unbind each other... Today, the turn is ours."

"Where is God in our pain and suffering? ...Right here beside us! The question is not 'Why did Jesus die?' The question is 'Why was Jesus killed?'"

April 22, 2020 at 8pm Charley Monaghan Charley Monaghan's reflection, based on Fr. Richard Leonard's book, "Where the Hell is God?" offered thought-provoking perspectives on where is God in our suffering, death, and the loss of our children. Charley Monaghan is one of the original founders of the Emmaus Ministry and a frequent Parent Retreat Team Leader. SEE CHARLEY MONAGHAN'S REFLECTION HERE

"What we do here on earth will echo into eternity. When we move forward, our children move forward with us and we move forward with them."
